Numb. 3817

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 8. to Thursday June 11. 1702.

ST. James's, June 8. The following Addreſs of the Tinners of the Dutchy of Cornwall, Signed by above Fifteen thouſand Men, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Radnor, Lord Warden of the Stannaries.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Bounders, Adventurers, Miners, and others, concerned in the Stannaries and Dutchy of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

HAving paid ſome part of the Tribute of Tears that is due to our late Sovereign Lord, William the Third, of moſt Glorious Memory, we moſt humbly and heartily Congratulate Your Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, Your undoubted Right, which is the only Comfort we were capable of, after the unſpeakable Loſs of the Wiſeſt, the Braveſt and Beſt of Kings, unto whom (next Heaven) we owe, not only the Enjoyment of our Religion, Liberty, and Property, but alſo the Bleſſing of Your Majeſties Auſpicious Reign over us.

Your Majeſties exemplary Piety, Juſtice, and Prudence, before they became Ornaments to the Crown, gave us an Earneſt of the Happineſs we were to Enjoy under Your Government; And all Your Subjects join in a Dutiful Admiration of theſe Your Princely Virtues, which have already influenced all Parties to ſuch a degree of Unanimity, as will diſappoint the only Hope of our Enemies, and make good the Prophetick Wiſh of our late Gracious Sovereign, by leaving no Diſtinction among us, but of thoſe who are for the preſent Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, and thoſe who mean a Popiſh Prince, and a French Government.

The Eyes of the World are fixed on Your Majeſty, as the only Power on Earth from whom the injured Princes and States of Europe can hope for a Redreſs of their Wrongs. We beſeech Almighty God to bleſs and preſerve Your Majeſty, to direct Your Councils, and proſper Your Arms, that You may ſucceſsfully execute the Great Deſign form'd by the King for the Good of Mankind: The Accompliſhment whereof ſeems to be an Honour reſerv'd for Your Majeſty as a Reward for Your Zeal for the Church of England in a Popiſh Reign; of Your Compaſſion for Your Country then ready to be enſlav'd; and, of Your Heroick Contempt of all the Dangers that threaten'd You, for Concurring with Your Royal Brother, of ever bleſſed Memory, in the Glorious Work of our Deliverance.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Rev. Edward Lord Biſhop of St. Aſaph, and ſeveral of the Clergy of the ſaid Dioceſe.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

IT has not been for want of a ready Will, and intire Obedience, that we have not before this attended Your Majeſty with our hearty Congratulations, as well as Condolence for the Death of the late King.

We do aſſure Your Majeſty, now rejoyce more ſincerely at Your Happy Acceſſion to the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors, being confident of Your fixt Reſolutions to reduce all Exorbitant Power.

Your Majeſty having begun Your Reign with publick Proofs and Demonſtrations of an Exemplary Piety and Diſcerning Wiſdom, of ſingular Bounty and Munificence, of a Zeal for the Eſtabliſht Church, and Concern for the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line; we cannot but expreſs the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude, in imploring the Divine Goodneſs for Your Majeſties long and proſperous Reign over us.

And we crave leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our conſtant and inviolable Faith and Allegiance (a Natural and Inherent Principle of our Country and Anceſtors) and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, defend Your Majeſties Lawful and Rightful Title to theſe Realms againſt all Your Enemies, and particularly the Pretended Prince of Wales.

May that Grace of God, by which You Reign, ſecure Your Royal Perſon, and eſtabliſh Your Throne in the ſteady Affections of Your People, as well as by the Triumphs of Your Victorious Arms.

To Queen ANNE, over England, &c.

The humble and thankful Acknowledgment of the People commonly called Quakers, from their Yearly General Meeting in London the 30th day of the Third Month called May, 1702.

Preſented to Her Majeſty by William Penn Eſq; accompanied by ſeveral of the ſaid General Meeting.

May it pleaſe the Queen,

WE Thy peaceable and dutiful Subjects, met from moſt Parts of Thy Dominions at our uſual Yearly Meeting for the Promotion of Piety and Charity, being deeply affected with Thy Free and Noble Reſolution in Thy late Speech at the Prorogation of the Parliament, to Preſerve and Maintain the Act of Toleration for the Eaſe and Quiet of all Thy People; could not but in Gratitude eſteem our ſelves engaged, both to thank Almighty God for that favourable Influence, and to renew and render our humble and hearty Acknowledgments to the Queen for the ſame, aſſuring Her (on behalf of all our Friends) of our Sincere Affection, and Chriſtian Obedience.

And we beſeech God, the Fountain of Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſo to direct all Thy Councils and Undertakings, that Righteouſneſs which exalts a Nation, and Mercy and Juſtice that eſtabliſh a Throne, may be the Character of Thy Reign, and the Bleſſing of theſe Kingdoms under it.

Signed by the Appointment, and on the Behalf of the ſaid Meeting, by us.

To which Her Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to anſwer,

I am very glad you are ſo well pleaſed with what I have ſaid; and you may depend upon my Protection.

An humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſes of Killala and Achonry, was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Excellency the Earl of Rocheſter, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Warſaw, May 28. N. S. The King of Sweden came the 22d Inſtant to Prege upon the River Wiſſel, after which His Majeſty took a view of this City, and of ſeveral Monaſteries in our Neighbourhood; And the 25th, he ſummoned the Weywode Polotsky our Governor to ſurrender, which he ſoon conſented to; and accordingly the next morning, about break of day, the Forces of Poland, which were in Gariſon here, marched out of the Caſtle, and 400 Swediſh Foot took poſſeſſion of it. The Swedes obſerve ſtrict Diſcipline, and tell the Inhabitants of this Place, That they deſign to maintain a good Correſpondence and Friendſhip with them; About 15000 Swedes more are ſhortly expected here, and it is ſaid, the King of Sweden intends to leave a ſtrong Gariſon in this Place, and to march with the reſt of his Army towards Cracow to find the King of Poland; who, according to ſome of our late Accounts from thence, was on his departure from that Place, intending to go to Sileſia in order to head his own Troops which are marching through that Country to Poland, and had cauſed a great Magazine of Proviſions to be prepared for them at Tarnowitz, on the Frontiers of this Kingdom. We hear, the beſt part of the Army of the Crown is arrived at the Rendezvous near Lemberg, but that thoſe Forces are in an ill condition, and little dependance can be had upon them.

Paris, June 5. N. S. The Count de Thoulouze, High Admiral of France, went Poſt from hence the 29th paſt towards Thoulon, with Monſieur de Relingues Lieutenant General of the French Fleet, in order to Command the French Men of War which are fitted out in that Harbour. The 31ſt, the Deputies of the Clergy of France, who are met at St. Germans en Laye, went in a Body to Verſailles to wait upon the King, being conducted by Monſieur Des Granges Maſter of the Ceremonies, and Introduced by Mon-
